

Bulldogs Fall to Cougars

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Bulldogs fell to the Cheylin Cougars on January 20 in Bird City. The varsity boys could not get much to fall in this Tuesday game. They got the ball to the Wessel twins in the first for five points and added six in the second. The Cougars also struggled to find the basket in the first half, but managed to lead 16-11 at the half.

The Cougars stepped up their game in the second half as they shot 16 in the third and 17 in the fourth. The Bulldogs were still unable to make their shots as they added six in the third and 5 in the fourth to give the Cougars the game with a final score of 49-22.

“We just were not working together tonight,” said Kade Wessel. “We had too many turnovers.” “We didn’t run our offense and didn’t handle the pressure well,” added Koi Wessel. “We are still working on fundamentals.” Koi Wessel finished the game with 11 points for the Bulldogs. Kade Wessel had 4, Brett Gerbitz-3, Nick Brown-2, and Domonic Luna-2.

The Bulldogs will return home to finish the week as they host the Northern Valley Huskies on Friday.
