

Bulldogs Struggle with Titans

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Bulldogs struggled with the Triplains/Brewster Titans in their first game following the winter break. They started out strong in the first quarter in Rexford putting up 12 points and holding the Titans to 8.

Two quick buckets from the Titans tied the game up at the beginning of the second. The Titans then went on a 13 point shooting spree before Braden Korte made several free throws for the Bulldogs. Additional free shots came from Brett Gerbitz and Nick Brown also made free shots for the Bulldogs, but their defense just couldn't hold the Titans back as they made 30 points in the second to pull ahead of the Bulldogs 38-18 by the half.

The Bulldogs continued to struggle to hang onto the ball in the second half as they only managed five points in the third and two during a continuous clock fourth quarter to give the Titans the 59-25 win. "This was not a good way for us to start off the new year," said Braden Korte. "We can and will play better."

Bulldog points came from Korte-6, Kade Wessel-5, Koi Wessel-5, Domonic Luna-2, Dawson Spresser-2, Brett Gerbitz-2, and Nick Brown-1. The Bulldogs played again on Saturday when they hosted the St. Francis Indians.
