

Lady 'Dogs Hustle Huskies
By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs outhustled the Lady Huskies from Northern Valley on January 23 in Rexford for a 50-22 win.

The Lady 'Dogs started the game with a quick four points from juniors Maddy Walz and Kynndra Rush. The Huskies made a basket, but the Lady 'Dogs regained control and pushed forward for a ten point lead. The Huskies hit a three, but the Lady 'Dogs led 17-5 at the end of the first.

The Lady 'Dogs worked together throughout the game, and despite the Huskies efforts, extended their lead to 28-9 by the half. They Lady 'Dogs continued to hold on to their lead in the second half adding 11 points in each of the third and fourth quarters for the 50-22 win.

“It was nice to have a game back on our home floor,” said Amber Erwin. “We won’t have another for three weeks.” Scoring for Golden Plains were Kynndra Rush-12, Gabrielle Schiltz-10, Amber Erwin-8, Kami Miller-7, Maddy Walz-7, Rachael Ritter-4, and Morgan Ritter-2.

The Lady 'Dogs have a three way tie at 5-1 with Triplains/Brewster and Logan in the league as they prepare for the Western Kansas Liberty League Tournament the first week of February.
