

JV Girls Fall to Quinter
By Judy Rogers

The JV Girls Basketball team at Golden Plains lost their third game of the to Quinter in a three-quarter game on January 27 with a 27-33 loss to the Lady Bulldogs of Quinter.

The GP girls held a 9-6 lead at the end of the first quarter and continued to play hard in the second to maintain a 20-16 lead at the half.

The Quinter girls came out on fire in the third quarter of play and pumped in 17 points while holding the Golden Plains girls to 7 for the win.

“Our energy level went down a lot and we were not giving as much effort,” said Carmen Sepulveda, sophomore. “We tried to regain our lost effort, but still came up short.” Kaylie Schaben led the GP girls with 7 points. Morgan Ritter put in 6 along with Ana Bermudez-4, Sierra Finlay-4, Maggi Nieman-2, Jessica Koerperich-2, and Sepulveda-2.

They will be on the road to Hill City on February 10 to try and add another win to their 7-3 record.
