

JV Girls Stumble on the Road By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV girls played two games on the road in the same week and lost both games. They fell to Triplains/Brewster 31-52 in Winona on Tuesday only to turn around and give Wheatland/Grinnell a 42-26 win on Friday, February 20.

The girls allowed Triplains/Brewster to gain an early lead on February 17 in Winona as the Lady Titans jumped out to a 19-2 lead in the first. The Lady Bulldogs answered back in the second by outscoring the Titans 12-8, but they still trailed 27-14 at half time.

They didn't give up in the second half and battled their way to 10 points in the third and 7 in the fourth. The Lady Titans took control and put up 16 and 9 each quarter for the 52-31 win. Golden Plains' points came from Sierra Finlay-10, Maggi Nieman-7, Kaylie Schaben-6, Ana Bermudez-4, Carmen Sepulveda-2, and Tayler Lobato-2.

Back on the road on Friday, the girls faced the Lady Thunderhawks in Grainfield. Once again, they couldn't get their offense going in the first allowing the Lady 'Hawks to jump out to a 10-1 lead in the first. Once they found the basket, they rallied to match the 'Hawks 10-10 in the second.

The Lady 'Dogs added another 7 in the third and 8 in the fourth, but 12 and 10 from the Lady 'Hawks gave them the 42-26 win. Schaben scored 8 points for the Bulldogs along with Nieman-6, Bermudez-4, Sepulveda-4, Finlay-2, and Jennifer Esparza-2. The JV girls, who now have a 7-6 record, look forward to finishing their season with a win against Cheylin on February 27 in Rexford.
