

Scholar's Bowl Team Places at Brewster

By Charlotte McCurdy

Both the JV and Varsity Scholar's Bowl Teams from Golden Plains placed in the Brewster Invitational on January 19. The JV won their division and the varsity placed third.

The Junior Varsity played 7 rounds, including three ghost rounds—a ghost round is when they answer questions for points without a competing team. They played four competition rounds going undefeated in all four to win first place. "I think that we answered a lot more questions than usual," said Clayton Bange Freshman. "We were more confident than what we normally are." On the JV team was Charlotte McCurdy, Clayton Bange, and Jennifer Luna.

The Varsity played seven rounds as well winning three. This was enough for them to finish in third place. "We did better than usual on Monday," said Devin Carter, freshman. "We are proud of how we worked together as a team. "I feel that as a team we worked well together," added Rebecca Bange, senior, "however we do have room for improvement." Participating on Varsity was Rebecca Bange, Nick Brown, Dawson Spresser, and Devin Carter.

The WKLL Scholar's Bowl was held at Golden Plains this year on Wednesday, January 21, 2015. The teams participating in the competition were Brewster, Cheylin, Golden Plains, Healy, Heartland, Logan, Northern Valley, Palco, Triplains, Weskan, Western Plains, and Wheatland. "I felt that we did not do our best," said Nick Brown, sophomore. "We will definitely do better next time." Cheylin won the meet followed by Western Plains and Logan.

The Scholar's Bowl team finished their season at Regionals on February 5.
