

JV Bulldogs Compete Against the Huskies
By Brianna Stoll

On Tuesday, October 7, the Lady Bulldogs took on the Northern Valley Huskies for the first time this season.

The Bulldogs got down at the beginning of the match, but they never gave up and put a lot of effort into their game, just barely losing 12-15. The Ladies started off the second set 4-9, but after their timeout they really picked up their game to get a lead of 12-9. After taking their timeout as well, the Lady Huskies took a breather and ended slipped ahead for the win 14-16.

This game was the last game for the JV girls, ending their season with a record of 0-5. "We gave a lot of effort this whole season," said freshman Kaylie Schaben. "I feel like we all improved greatly since the beginning of the season, and I was really happy with our improvements by the end of the season."

"Although we might not have been extremely successful, I still feel like this season was a great chance to get experience," stated freshman Maggi Nieman. "High school is a completely new game compared to middle school, and I'm really happy with how much we've improved since last year. I really enjoyed my first year of volleyball."
