

Bump Set Ouch!

By: Allie Lammey

All right it's go time! Ouch! I just hit the floor! People just keep hitting me and dirty hands keep touching me too. Some of the players take good care of me. Ouch! Ouch! I do not know why they keep hitting me. I always smell sweat. Sometimes I even smell my own leather. I love being in the gym it smells so good. The best part I like is I can smell popcorn. I can also smell strangers a lot. They don't smell good!

I taste dirty hands a lot; I do not like it. They taste horrible. When my players bring me into the locker room it is so strong I can taste it. When the players are playing with me they slam me down to the gym floor. It hurts and tastes like feet! Sometimes they even throw me into the net. Boom! Someone just hit me. Did you guys hear that? I don't know if you guys did or not, but I did. I love the sound of the smack on the floor. It's an ace spike. I nailed It! I always love it when that happens. Ouch my ears. The coach just blew his whistle. The parents always scream it makes me get headaches.

I like to look at everyone's uniforms. I see hands waving in the air when our team is winning. Sometimes I even get to see my friends. So that's all about my day. There is a big tournament tomorrow. I hope I get to be the winning spike.
