

Bulldogs Compete in Plainville

By Charlotte McCurdy

On Thursday, February 22nd, the Golden Plains forensics team traveled to Plainville for a tough meet. The team brought a total of 8 entries. Devin Carter participated in Duet and IDA, Angel Sanchez in IDA and Poetry, Charlotte McCurdy in Prose, Flint Hodge in Humorous Solo and Extemporaneous, Malilah Green in Prose, and Rolis Loya in Humorous Solo. The team had one entry make it to finals.

This was a big meet with a multitude of entries from multiple schools. Both McCurdy and Green were only a few points away from breaking finals. Devin and Angel were the only two to make it to finals this meet. They made it together in IDA and placed second overall. The next meet the team will participate in is the WKLL Meet on March 28th.

“I look forward to our next few meets,” said Coach Robynn Wessel, “I am also proud of so many team members making it to state this year.”
