

IDA Partners Qualify in Norton

By Charlotte McCurdy

On Saturday, February 3rd the Golden Plains Forensics team traveled to Norton early in the morning to participate in the Forensics Meet. All together they took a total of nine entries.

Angel Sanchez and Devin Carter competed in IDA. They broke finals and finished in second place overall qualifying them for the State Champs meet later this spring. “It was great to qualify for state at the second meet,” said Angel Sanchez, “We can work on improving before the state competition.” Sanchez also placed second in Impromptu and competed in Oration.

Other competitors included Farrah Benavidez in Serious Solo and Prose, Malilah Green in Prose, Tanner Trussel in Serious Solo, and Flint Hodge in Extemporaneous and Humorous Solo. Hodge placed sixth in Extemporaneous. The Bulldogs will compete again in Wheatland on Febraury 10.
