

Performers Compete at Wheatland/Grinnell

By Charlotte McCurdy

On Saturday, February 17th the Golden Plains forensics team went to a meet in Grainfield. This was Wheatland/Grinnell's first ever meet. The individuals who participated were: Seniors Devin Carter, Angel Sanchez, and Charlotte McCurdy, Junior Amanda Cheney, Sophomores Flint Hodge and Joseph Yanez, and Freshmen Tanner Trussel and Rolis Loya.

Carter competed in IDA and Prose, Sanchez competed in IDA, Poetry, and Oration, McCurdy competed in Prose, Cheney in Poetry and Prose, Hodge in Extemporaneous and Humorous Solo, Yanez in Prose and Extemporaneous, Trussel in Duet and Poetry, and Loya in Duet. Everyone got great quality points in the preliminary rounds but not everyone broke for finals.

There were 6 out of the 13 total entries that made it to finals. The individuals who made it to finals were, Devin in IDA and Prose, Angel in IDA and Oration, Amanda in Poetry, Flint in Extemporaneous, and Joseph in Extemporaneous. Devin and Angel placed third in IDA, Devin placed fourth in Prose, Angel placed fifth in Oration, Amanda placed fifth in Poetry, Flint placed fourth in Extemp, and Joseph placed fifth place.

"I am proud of my team for placing in so many events," said Coach Robynn Wessel, "and I'm proud of the way they have worked this season so far."
