

GP Forensics Take Second at League

By Amanda Cheney

The Golden Plains forensics team competed in the Western Kansas Liberty League Forensics Meet on March 29 in Almena. The students earned 185 total team points on the day, earning them a second place plaque—just four points behind first place Western Plains.

Competing at this meet were Devin Carter and Angel Sanchez-IDA, Devin Carter and Taryn Fleckenstein-Duet, Charlotte McCurdy- Poetry and Prose, Angel Sanchez-Poetry, Farrah Benavidez-Poetry and Serious Solo, Amanda Cheney-Poetry, Miguel Monge-Oration and Humorous Solo, Taryn Fleckenstein-Prose, Flint Hodge-Extemporaneous and Humorous Solo, Joseph Yanez-Perez-Extemporaneous and Prose, and Rolis Loya-Prose and Humorous Solo.

The Bulldogs had at least one team member break finals in every event that they brought to this meet. At the end of the day, three events claimed the league championship including Devin Carter and Angel Sanchez in IDA; Devin Carter and Taryn Fleckenstein in Duet and Amanda C in Poetry qualifying her for state champs. The other two championships had qualified for state at earlier meets.

Charlotte McCurdy earned 5th in Poetry; Farrah Benavidez earned 7th in Serious Solo, Miguel Monge placed 7th in Oration; Joseph Yanez was 6th in Extemp. Flint Hodge placed in two events-- 4th in Extemp and 5th in Humorous Solo.

“I am so proud of all my forensics students,” said Coach Robynn Wessel. “We had several first-time competitors who did very well! I’m also very proud of Amanda qualifying for state champs!”
