

JV Girls Claim Another Win

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV girls claimed their third win of the season with a 30-11 victory over Weskan on January 19 in Rexford. The Lady Bulldogs put in 11 points in the first of this two-quarter game as their defense held the Lady Coyotes to 4. They spread the ball around in the second quarter with Brooke Stoll hitting three 3-pointers to win the game 30-11.

Stoll finished the game with 11 points while Tylor Todd put in 7. Jennifer Esparza and Amanda Cheney each added 4 along with 2 each by Taryn Fleckenstein and Ashley Stoll. "This was a fun game," said Amanda Cheney. "We played well as a team. Everybody is improving on their individual skills which helps the team's success." The JV girls will play a full game against Quinter on January 23 in Rexford.
