

JV Boys Play First Full Game

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV Boys Basketball team played their first full game of the season in Stockton on December 19. The Bulldogs started the game off with Josh Spresser, Miguel Monge, Austin Patmon, Jaime Infante, and Colby Lathrop on the floor.

The 'Dogs had a pretty good first quarter but the Tigers from Stockton leaped ahead for a 23-8 lead. The Tigers continued to push the ball through the second adding 18 while the Bulldogs only had a 3 from Patmon.

The Bulldogs regrouped at the half and had a much better second half. Both teams scored 8 in the third and the 'Dogs outscored the Tigers 8-2 in the third to finish the game with a 27-51 win for the Tigers.

Jaime Infante led the Bulldogs with 11 points. . "It was a pretty good game," said Infante. "We definitely had a better second half." Wade Rush added 6 in the second half with another 5 from Austin Patmon. Josh Spresser sank a 3 and Miguel Monge added 2. The JV team will play again against Logan on January 5 in Rexford.
