The Golden Plains Middle school A-team boys had their first basketball games of the season at the Brewster Preseason Tournament on November 11.

The Bullogs fell behind 4-18 in the first quarter game against Triplains/Brewster. The Titans continued to hold the lead throughout the second with a half time score of 29-6.

The Bulldogs had their best quarter in the third with 5 points—all from Ashton Schiltz, but they were unable to gain the lead as they lost the game 14-47. Ashton Schiltz led the team with 7 points. Fabian Cepeda had 4 points, and Wyatt Mcdonald and Joshua Yanez-Perez each added 2 points.

Their second game was against the Northern Valley Huskies. The Bulldogs were no match for the Huskies' speed as they lost 9-54. Schiltz again led the team with 4 points along with Fabian Cepeda with a 3 and an additional basket by Garrett Carter.

“We need to work on boxing out as a team,” said Garret Carter. “We also need to work on our coordination.” “We tried hard,” added BJ Rogers. “We worked together as a team.” “We still need to work on boxing out and shooting layups,” added Wyatt McDonald. The Bulldogs continued their season on November 16, 2017 at Logan.
