

B-Team Takes Down Triplains/Brewster By Ashley Stoll

The Golden Plains Middle School Lady Bulldogs had their first home games of the season on November 21. They took on the Triplains/Brewster Titans.

The B-Team started off the night. They began the game playing great defense, but only put up 2 points in the first quarter. The Bulldogs shots started to fall in the second quarter, and they added 8 more to go into half-time, leading 10-0.

They continued to keep up the defense in the third quarter. The Lady ‘Dogs added 8 more before going into the fourth leading 18-0. The Titans began to find the basket, putting in 4 points in the fourth quarter. Jazline Manriquez added four more in the fourth for the Bulldogs, winning the game, 22-4.

“It was exciting and I would like to play them again,” said 6th grader Jorja Juenemann, “The game was very fun, but tiring,” added 6th grader Mia Rogers. Contributors to the score were Jordyn Fleckenstein and McHaley Carter with 6, Sidney Taylor and Jazline Manriquez with 4, and Britton Knowles with 2.
