

Lady Bulldogs Take Home The Win
By Mabel Lugo

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs played against Rawlins County in Atwood on Tuesday, February 12, defeating them 45-14.

The Bulldogs came out fired up and scored 12 points in the first quarter as they played tough defense only letting the Buffalos score 4. In the second quarter, The Lady Bulldogs continued to shoot the ball well and added 11 to the scoreboard. The Buffalos couldn't pass through the Bulldogs defense only able to make another 4 to go into the half with a 23-8 Golden Plains lead.

In the third quarter the Buffalos had a hard time in offense only being able to make one basket. The Bulldogs were on fire and put in 16. The Buffaloes picked up their intensity in the fourth to hold the Dogs to 6 while finishing the game with 4 to give the Dogs the 45-14 win. "We were prepared, and weren't over thinking to the level they were at," said Zoey Hillis. "We still continued to keep our defense up even when our shots weren't going in."

Kaycee Miller led the team with 13 points as Ashley Stoll added 10, Kassie Miller 9, Mabel Lugo 5, Brooke Stoll 4, Taryn Fleckenstein 2, and Zoey Hillis 2. The Lady Bulldogs will be continue their undefeated season in Quinter facing off with the Bulldogs on Thursday, February, 14.