

JV Boys Play Full Game
Amanda Cheney

The Golden Plains junior varsity boys played a full game in their season opener against the Wheatland/Grinnell Thunderhawks on November 30.

The Bulldogs fell behind 2-11 in the first quarter. They added 4 points to their score with a free throw from Rolis Loya and a three point shot from Alex Gonzales, but the boys still trailed 6-25 at the half.

After halftime, the 'Dogs doubled their score but struggled to stop the 'Hawks offense, ending the third 12-38. GP ended the game with a 16-53 loss. Ashton Schiltz led the Bulldogs' offense with 5 points, Rolis Loya and Kole Butts each added 4 points, and Alex Gonzales had 3.

"We were all a little nervous when the game first started, but we got over it once the game got underway," said freshman Ashton Schiltz. "We had too many turnovers, and we need to take better care of the ball." The Bulldogs JV will play their next games on December 14 against Northern Valley on their home floor in Rexford.
