

JV Boys Host Stockton
By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV Boys hosted Stockton on December 18 for the last game of the fall season. The played hard but fell to the Tigers 29-52.

The Tigers jumped to a 20-3 lead in the first quarter. The 'Dogs fought back in the second to add 8 but the Tigers extended their lead to 40-11 by the half. "Our first half was a little rough, but we renewed hope at half time to come back and play better in the second half," said Joseph Yanez-Perez.

The Bulldogs stayed true to their game and outscored the Tigers in the third 13-2. The Tigers fought back with another 10 in the fourth as the 'Dogs added 5 to finish the game 29-52 in favor of the Tigers.

Kole Butts led the Bulldogs with 7 points with an additional 5 from Joseph Yanez-Perez. Colby Lathrop added 4, Fabian Cepeda 3, Austin Patmon 3, Ashton Schiltz 3, Alex Gonzalez 2, and Roberto Loya 2.

"Our goal after break will be to work together and get closer as a team. It will come," added Yanez-Perez. The Bulldogs will be back on the court January 4 in Logan.
