

Golden Plains Girls Plays JV Game in Oberlin

By Brooke Stoll

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs traveled to Oberlin on January 7 to take on the Oberlin Red Devils for their first full JV game of the season. They fell to the Red Devils 16-27.

The Lady Dogs struggled to find the basket in the first quarter and were behind 2-12 at the end of the quarter. They held the Devils to 1 point in the second quarter while adding 4 to theirs, making the score 6-13 going into halftime.

The Bulldogs came out of halftime and put 4 more points on the board, but allowed the Red Devils to add 8 more to theirs. The score was 10-21 going into the fourth quarter of play. Both teams scored 6 points in the fourth quarter making the final score 16-27.

Posting up points for Bulldogs were Morgan Wark 5, Carli Nieman 4, Rayna Taylor 3, and Candace Taylor and Taryn Fleckenstein with 2 a piece.

“We didn’t play our best that we could’ve but it was a good learning experience of how hard and competitive we have to play.” Morgan Wark freshman stated, “I was glad we could play our first full JV game and I am looking forward to continue to improve!”

The GP Lady Bulldogs will continue their JV season as they host the Western Plains/Healy Bobcats for a half JV game on January 11.
