

GPHS Girls Go for Another Win
By Marielena Cruz

Golden Plains High School Volleyball team claimed another win against Triplains-Brewster Tuesday, October 3 in Rexford.

The Varsity girls defeated Triplains-Brewster in 2 sets. The Titans opened the first set with the serve taking a 1-0 lead. The Bulldogs quickly took over the game gaining a 17-6 lead before a timeout was called. With some powerful kills by KayCee Miller Bulldogs won the set 25-10. The Bulldogs had complete control over the second set with multiple ACE serves by Amanda Cheney to win the set and the match 25-4.

“We had a lot of energy and played well as a team,” said Mabel Lugo. “Even though our hits weren’t on point, we pulled together for the win.”

The second set was played with Northern Valley. The lady’s put up a good fight but lost to the Huskies. “We played a lot better than we did when we played them earlier in the season,” added Lugo.

The Lady Bulldogs will continue their 16-7 season on Saturday when they play a round robin tournament at the Ringneck Classic in Hill City.
