JV Splits Games in Winona By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV Volleyball team went one and one on the road in Winona on September 4. The won in two sets over Triplains/Brewster and lost to Tribune in two sets.

The first game was against The Tribune Jackrabbits. The girls worked together for 16 points but the 'Rabbits scored 25 for the win. The second set was similar with the 'Rabbits claiming the win 25-14

The second match was against Triplains/Brewster. The girls had defeated the Titans earlier in the season and today was not exception. The Bulldogs fought hard for the 25-20 win in the first set and captured the win in the second set 25-14.

The JV girls will support the varsity at the Gove County Classic on September 8 before returning to the court in Almena on September 11 against Northern Valley and Victoria.
