

Student Spotlight
Zoey Hillis-September

Zoey Hillis has been selected for the Golden Plains High School Student Spotlight for September. Students are selected for the Spotlight based on their Academic Performance, Character, and Personal Development.

Zoey joined Golden Plains in the spring of 2018 coming to us from Maxwell, Nebraska. She is active in Volleyball, Basketball, and Art and competes in open 4-H Horse Showmanship. "Being selected makes me feel accomplished," said Zoey. She is a junior at GPHS and is the daughter of Amanda Trew and Dustin Trew of Colby.
