

JV Boys Play in Hill City
By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV boys basketball team played a full game in Hill City on February 11. The boys fought hard but fell to the Ringnecks 29-57.

The Bulldogs fell behind early in the first 5-13 with a three from Fabian Cepeda and a basket from Jovonny Infante. The doubled their score with 10 more in the second as Ethan Weiner and Ashton Schiltz joined Cepeda in finding the bucket. Their defense held the Ringnecks to 9 but the Hill City team led 22-15 at the half.

The Bulldogs held steady win an additional 9 in the third quarter but Hill City stepped behind the arc to hit six three's on their way to 22 points to extend their lead 44-24. The Dogs only put in another 5 in the fourth while the Ringnecks added 13 with another series of threes for the 57-29 win.

The Bulldogs spread the ball around the floor with Cepeda leading the team with 8 total points. Roberto Loya and Ashton Schiltz added 5 apiece while Jovanny Infante put in 3. Ethan Weiner, Joseph Yanez-Perez, Mason Green, and Ethan Shea each added 2. The JV boys will finish their season on February 17 against Goodland in Rexford.