

JV Boys Play Saturday Game in Leoti
By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV boys basketball team played their third game of the week on Saturday, January 25, against Wichita County in Leoti.

The boys got off to a good start in the first quarter as they outscored the Indians 9-7. The Indians answered back in the second with a series of three point shots to put up 20 points. The Bulldogs missed numerous free throw opportunities and only scored 4 points to fall behind 27-13 at the half.

The Dogs continued to miss the basket in the third only putting in 5 while the Indians kept up the pace with 13. The Bulldogs outscored the Indians 13-7 in the fourth but the Indians were able to claim the win 48-31.

Jovanny Infante led the Bulldogs with 6 points—all in the fourth. Ethan Weiner and Kole Butts each added 5. Ashton Schiltz had 4, Toby Korte and Garrett Carter 3 each, Ethan Shea and Mason Green 2 each, and Fabian Cepeda 1.

The JV team continued their season on Monday, January 27 in Oakley.
