

JV Girls Fall to Colby Eagles

By Britton Knowles

On Monday, February 17, the Golden Plains JV Lady Bulldogs played against the Colby Eagles on their home floor in Rexford. They played a full game against the Eagles and ended the game with an 18-36 point fall to the Eagles.

The Lady Bulldogs started off the game behind the Colby Eagles by 8 points, ending the first quarter 6-14. The girls were only able to score 2 points in the second quarter while the Eagles pushed up their score up by 4. The Lady 'Dogs trailed 8-18 at the half.

In the third quarter, the Lady Bulldogs kept fighting but only managed 3 points in the while the Eagles put in 8. The Bulldogs made their final 7 points of the game in the fourth, but the Eagles scored 10 ending the game 36-18 in favor of the Eagles.

"It was nice to be able to play someone that is out of our league," said Candace Taylor. "I think it was good for us because they are a bigger school and we don't see them play as much as we see people in our league play."

Breanna Rath put in 6 points for the Bulldogs along with Sidney Taylor 5, McHaley Carter 3, Candace Taylor 2, and Lauren Patmon 2. The JV girls will finish their season on Tuesday, February 18, on their home floor against Rawlins County.
