

JV Lady Bulldogs Fight for Another Win
By Britton Knowles

On Tuesday, February 11, the Golden Plains Junior Varsity Lady Bulldogs played against the Hill City Ringnecks in Hill City. They played a full game against the Ringnecks and ended the game with a 3 point win, 26-23.

The Lady Bulldogs started the game behind by two at the end of the first quarter. The girls bumped up their score by 8 in the second quarter while holding the Ringnecks to 3 ending the first half with the Bulldogs ahead with a score of 12-9.

In the third quarter, the Lady Dogs were only able to make two points while the Ringnecks made 14, leaving the Bulldogs again falling behind, ending the third quarter 14-23. As in the fourth quarter, the Bulldogs made their final 12 points while the Ringnecks didn't make anything ending the game with a Bulldog win, 26-23.

Leading off the Bulldogs was Breanna Rath 12 points, Sidney Taylor 6, Rayna Taylor 3, Amie Cheney and McHaley Carter 2 points each, and then Lauren Patmon with 1 point.

“We started off the game kind of rough,” stated Rath, “but we pulled it together and fought our way back to the top to end with a 3 point lead.” The Lady ‘Dogs will continue their season on Monday, February 17, on the Golden Plains home floor against Colby.