

JV Girls Win Full Game
By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV girls basketball team played a full game against Quinter in Rexford on January 28 capturing the win 38-13 over the Quinter Bulldogs.

The Golden Plains girls hit the court ready to fire on all cylinders as they posted up 12 points holding Quinter to a single 3-point shot in the first. GP added 6 more in the second—four from free throws—while holding Quinter to 2 to lead 18-5 at half time.

The third quarter continued to be all about Golden Plains who outscored Quinter 11-1. Quinter had their best quarter in the fourth with 2 three pointers and a free throw for 7, but Golden Plains stayed the course with an additional 9 for the 38-13 win.

Rayna Taylor score 8 points for Golden Plains along with 7 from Breanna Rath, Sidney Taylor 5, Amie Cheney 3, and Candace Taylor 2. The JV girls will return to the court following the WKLL League tournament when they travel to Hill City on February 11.
