

JV Girls Defeat the Tigers By Ashley Stoll

The Golden Plains JV girls took on the Stockton Tigers in Stockton on Tuesday, January 7th. They played 4 full quarters, and came out on top 42-27.

The Bulldogs jumped ahead in the first quarter leading 12-6. In the second quarter, the Tigers picked up their offense to outscore the Dogs 6-5. GP headed into half-time with a 17-12 lead. "We played hard and worked together well," said Lauren Patmon. "We outworked the other team, which is our goal for each game."

The Bulldogs came out in the third with fire. They worked the ball well and recovered several steals to contribute to their 14 points for the quarter, holding Stockton to only 7 for a GP lead 31-19. They continued their intensity into the fourth quarter. The Dogs widened the gap further adding 11 more. Their strong defense held off the Tigers, only allowing them to score 8. The Bulldogs captured the win 42-27.

Amie Cheney lead on the scoreboard with 9 points, followed by Rayna Taylor with 8, and Breanna Rath with 7. Sidney Taylor, Jazeline Manriquez, and McHaley Carter all added 4 each. Emily Stoltz, Lauren Patmon, and Karlissa Shepard each contributed 2 more.

The JV Lady Bulldogs will continue their season at home on Friday, January 10th, with a 5:00 P.M. start. They will play a half-game taking on the Logan Trojans. On Saturday, January 11th, they will travel to St. Francis to take on the Indians for a full game starting at 2:00 P.M.
