

JV Boys Play Close Game At St. Francis
By Ethan Weiner

On Saturday January 11, the Golden Plains JV boys played the St. Francis Indians in St. Francis. They played two four-minute quarters. They played hard but fell by one point to the Indians 10-11.

The Bulldogs were able to score 6 points in the short first quarter, but they allowed 8. They weren't able to do much more in the second only putting up 4 from Ashton Schiltz, but they were able to hold the Indians to 3. The final score was 11-10, St. Francis.

It was a short game but Schiltz was able to put in 6 of the 10 on the scoreboard while Rojelio Loya scored 4. "We played pretty good," said Schiltz. "We came back in the second of the four-minute quarters, but ran out of time in such a short game."

The JV Bulldogs will play a full game against Heartland Christian in Rexford on January 16.
