

Middle School Girls Continue the Their Season By Britton Knowles

The Golden Plains Middle School girls continued their volleyball season against the Cheylin Cougars in Bird City on October 8. A, B, and C teams all played. They walked off the court with two wins and one loss.

The A-team girls started off in the first set 25-14. “We did good,” said Braylee Knowles, 7th grade, who sets for the A-Team. “We worked really hard on our serves and we always gave it our best to get the ball back over the net.” The Bulldogs fell 2 points short in a hard fought second set 26-28. The Lady Dogs came back and fought hard in the third set to end the game with a win of 25-6.

The B-team girls lost the first set 8-25 and the second set 9-25. “I was really nervous but I had fun,” said Madi Green, 8th grade, “I had more fun than I thought I would. We need to work on talking and working together though. I can’t wait to play again.”

The C-team only got to play one set which they won 27-25. “We had fun,” said Katie Carter, 6th grade. “It was nice to play after the hard work at practices. We need to work on moving towards the ball faster.”

This was the final game of the year for the C-Team girls. They finished the season with two wins and three losses. The A and B teams continue their season against Weskan in Rexford on October 8.
