

Lady Bulldogs Fall to Indians

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs fell to the Wichita County Lady Indians 17-50 in the first game of the new year in Rexford on January 2.

The Bulldogs could not get their offense going in the first quarter as the Indians pulled ahead 12-3. The Indians continued to drive to the basket added 23 in the second quarter while the Dogs only got one basket to fall to go into the half trailing the Indians 5-35.

The Dogs picked up their pace slightly in the second half scoring six in each of the third and fourth quarters. However, the Indians added 11 in the third and 4 in the fourth for the 50-17 win over the Dogs.

Senior Jordyn Fleckenstein finished the game with 7 points along with 6 from Hayden Wark. Kailee Wessel and Anais Cepeda each added 2. The girls continue their season on Saturday, January 6, in Victoria.
