

JV Boys Win Second Game

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV Boys Basketball won their second game of the season 44-21 against Western Plains/Healy in Healy on December 15. This gives the JV team a 2-0 record.

The game opened with a basket by Ezekiel Weiner. The Bobcats pulled ahead 5-2 but a shot by Jose Rios brought it within one. The Bobcats added two more shots to lead 9-4 at the end of the first.

The Bulldogs switched things up on the court in the second quarter and repeated shots by Owen Patmon and Dylan Wark allowed the Dogs to pull ahead 11-9. Roberto Aguilar hit a 3 and additional shots by Patmon, Wark, and Rios, along with tough Bulldog defense gave the Dogs the lead 21-15 at the half.

The Bulldogs kept up their game in the third allowing Aguilar to pump in some additional shots. Diego Perez and Dominic Stout added baskets along with a free throw from Weiner. They held the Bobcats away from the basket for a 33-15 third quarter score.

The Bobcats added six more points in the fourth while the Dogs stayed strong to finish the game with a 44-21 win. Aguilar led the Dogs with 10 points along with 9 from Rios. Wark added 7, Patmon 6, Stout 5, Weiner 3, and Perez and Miguel Garcia with 2 each. The JV boys will be back on their home court on December 19 when they host St. Francis in Rexford.
